

MUMBAI TOURIST PLACE

1. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya Museum

- This is the largest museum in Mumbai. Inside are antiques from all over the country. Starting from the old sculptures, Mughal paintings are beautiful, tools handmade weapons. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vasthara Sangrahalaya Museum is located at 159-161 Mahatma Gandhi (MG) Road, Fort.
- Travelled Distance: 26 Km
Time spent in Traveling: 39 Minutes.
- A local favorite for the colorful Thali that it serves. It's a mix of Rajasthani and Gujrati

2. Chowpatty beach

- This is one popular tourist attractions in Mumbai to watch the sunset. Many people who go to Chowpatty beach to breathe the sea air while eating bhelpuri (fried snacks) or choose to swim. Still wondering where is it located? Try visiting the address Chowpatty, Marine Drive (Netaji Subhashchandra Bose Road).
- Day's Travel Time: 32 Minutes
- bhelpuris (puffed rice snacks) and other Indian delights.

3.Elephanta island

- Small island in the Mumbai Harbor is famous for its ancient cave temples carved, especially the temple of Shiva. Here you can see the carving three-faced statue of the god. Transportation that is needed is a boat that is available near the Gateway of India.
- Travel Time: 124 Minutes
- Nothing particular special to say, it was just fried rice, taste was ok not great but its cheap and ok for the price we paid.

4. India Gate

- Usually the gate is used as carnival center for the forecasters, the boats are decorated and many others. India Gate is located just in front of Mumbai Harb
- Day's Travel Time: 37 Minutes.

5. Haji Ali Drgah

- Place on this small island used as a place of worship for Muslims in Mumbai. Uniquely, the people rarely come to Haji Ali is rarely found when the tides because of the bridge (Worli Bay) could be asleep.

-

6. Jehangir Art Gallery

- If you want to see great performances, visit to Jehangir Art Gallery is located at 161B Mahatma Gandhi (MG) Road, Kala Ghoda. There are many fineworks of art and good in this place. this gallery become one of famous tourist attractions in Mumbai.

7. Juhu beach

- The most appropriate time to visit the Juhu beach is in the afternoon. Here you can walk around waiting for the sunset while eating a snack fresh

8. Mahalaxmi Dobi Ghat

- There are thousands of traditional garments at the Mahalaxmi dhobi Ghat. They began to look closely at the Mahalaxmi railway station up on a bridge.
-

9. Marine Drive

Marine Drive dubbed as the "Queen's Necklace" the most beautiful in the evening. This is a popular spot along the coast of the Arabian Sea, from afternoon until evening.

10. St Thomas' Cathedral

- One of the oldest remaining building in Mumbai is the St. Thomas' Cathedral. The building was built in the 17th century to 18 with Byzantine designs. In it there are also several old graves in the UK.

